From the desk of Sr. Linda.....

As we remember all of our military who gave their lives while serving our country, we recall nearly 3,000 Arizonans who died in wars since 1917. Pat Tillman, Arizona Cardinal, ASU grad ... I remember the day he announced he was going into the service because of 9/11....Mike McBride, Navy, a graduate of my high school and classmate of one of my brothers, died in Viet Nam.

I'm sure all of you have memories of those who touched your life and gave their life for others. Jesus said "no greater than one who gives their life for others." Jesus set the example, our military have followed in that example. Let us pray for all military, past and present, living and deceased and for their families.

Today's Gospel: Home is a place of help. We look for each other and the content home is where each cares for the other. St Ignatius used say each day, 'Who can I help today?'. Maybe we can make that part of the music of our homes. This is God helping through you, and it is God finding us and each other in love. To make a home is a work of love. Jesus' making of a home in us comes through our growth and development in love. The loving marriage, the loving friendship, the heart that cares for others, the family that is open to faith and love – these are what makes Jesus feel at home.
