....this week after all the lives that were taken so unexpectedly. This week I pondered....am I ready to meet my God if I were in a place where someone decided to take the lives of others, or if I were in a car crash, or had a heart attack?

The Gospel today is asking us if we are ready when God calls us to our heavenly home.

Today we are called to live our best self, to love those we hold dear, to forgive where needed, to reach out to others with acts of kindness for those who's lives we touch—be they strangers, family, neighbors.

From the desk of Sr. Linda.....

Greetings, a few weeks ago, Sister Lydia and I set out for Alpine, AZ. Friends loaned us their cabin for the week. It was indeed cool [70's and rain] and at the edge of the woodswhat a wonderful setting. We were joined by humming birds, wood peckers, blue birds and several other types along with the cows grazing in a field down from us. What an extraordinary insertion into nature.

We were 6 miles from New Mexico and took a drive to Santa Fe to see the Loretto Chapel and the winding stairs St. Joseph provided. Then to Chamayo, north of Santa Fe....what a spiritual experience! Their multiple chapels were each unique...various crutches and other medical supplies left by those who were healed. Look up the story of the Holy Dirt of Chimayo, New Mexico.

In the first chapel there is a place for placing intentions....we included the intentions of all of our Oblates and Faith community....make your intention and God will take care of the rest....as the people of Chamayo pray for all of our intentions.

Today's Gospel is about always being prepared..."You must be prepared because the Son of Man will come when you least expect Him." Interesting that this Gospel comes ...

OBLATE PRAYER

O Loving God, I ask your blessing this day on all the Oblates of Saint Benedict and those with whom we are affiliated.

Help us to become people of prayer and peace. Though scattered far and wide, help us to be together in the spirit of your love.

Give us hearts wide enough to embrace each other as well as those whose lives we touch.

Enable us to listen and to learn from each other and those around us each day.

May we be models in our homes, neighborhoods, and communities of wise stewardship, dignified human labor, sacred leisure, and reverence for all living things.

Above all, O God, may our presence among others be a constant witness of justice, compassion and hope to all.

Amen

Have you considered God's call for you to be an Oblate?

"Heal me, O Lord, and I will be healed; save me and I will be saved, for you are the one I praise." ~ Jeremiah 17:14

Did you see on the news this week the story of an 11 year old who started the "El Paso Challenge" to help his community heal? He is challenging each person to do 22 good deeds for others—one for each of the victims shot and killed when a white supremacist began firing Saturday inside their Walmart.

We can participate....for the next 22 weeks....we can do our acts of Kindness to change the world!

Remember to do an Act of Kindness each week!
